

Visiting this exhibition not only deepened my understanding of art but also inspired me to view the world around me in a more imaginative and colorful way. It was a vivid reminder of how art can evoke emotions and provoke thoughts, underscoring its vital role in our lives.